

University of Brighton

Library Services

Dissertations Permissions Slip

The Library holds selected student dissertations as examples of good practice. These are stored in the library and can be borrowed from the Help Desk.

Access to your work will be restricted to current staff and students, and the copy kept for no more than 1 year. You will retain full copyright over your work.

Criteria

Examples to be held in the library will be recommended by academic staff.

School/Department: _____

Student name: _____

Student ID number: _____

Award: _____

Module: _____

Project / Dissertation title: _____

I give permission for University of Brighton Library Services to hold a copy of my dissertation.

Signed: _____

Date: _____

E-mail address: _____